

Tuesday night 9th June at Dubbo, the NSWSOA bonus payments continued, owners R E D Harness Racing Pty Ltd, P D Trevor-Jones, P A Mortimer, G M McCormack, P D Oxley and S McDonald were the successful owner groups.

The night was eventful with a 16 car police chase between Wellington and Dubbo with the Bathurst trainers having to dodge the pursuit on the way to the track. There were 24 potential winners in the seven race programme.

Race 2, with the Amanda Turnbull driven Runaway Red winning for the passionate harness racing supporter Rob Davis of R E D Harness Racing Pty Ltd, receiving $500.

Race 4, with Navarda Ace, trained and part owned by Peter Trevor-Jones and driven by John O'Shea greeted the judge and being Breeders Challenge eligible received $1,000.

Race 6, Lynchman owned by Scott McDonald, trained by P Russo and driven by the Lexus of Parramatta-Harold Park Medal winner Ashley Siejka received $500 bonus.

Special thank you to Dubbo Harness Racing Club President David Wrigley, Secretary Marjory Bradley and Broadcaster Craig Easey for his special promotion.

Photos courtesy of Coffee Photography.

